

CCC EARNs STATEWIDE RECOGNITION FROM THE CAMPAIGN FOR COLLEGE OPPORTUNITY

CCC is being recognized as a top performer in the following categories:

- Champion of Higher Education - Associate Degrees for Transfer Awarded as a Percentage of all Associate Degrees Awarded, reflecting the percentage of total associate degrees awarded that were Associate Degrees for Transfer in the 2020 – 21 academic year. This is the fifth consecutive year in which CCC has been recognized in this category.
- Equity Champion for Black Students, supporting at least 65% of Black associate-degree earners on your campus to earn an ADT and supporting these students to perform as well or better in this metric compared to the student body.
- Equity Champion for Latinx Students, supporting at least 65% of Latinx associate-degree earners on your campus to earn an ADT, as well as supporting these students to perform as well or better in this metric compared to the student body.

CCC will be recognized at the 2022 Champions of Higher Education Virtual Celebration on Tuesday, November 1, 2022, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. via Zoom.

A big “Crush” congratulations to our students, faculty, staff, and administrators for their hard work and dedication in earning these fantastic awards.

CCC COUNSELOR RECOGNIZED

At the CAGP 2.0 Institute 3, Counselor Rachel Morning Garcia was recognized by the College Futures Foundations as an Exemplary Student Support Leader for her leadership and drive to help get all the maps for the different programs and certificates created.

CCC SUPPORTS DACA STUDENTS WITH VARIOUS ACTIVITIES DURING UNDOCUMENTED STUDENT ACTION WEEK

CCC employees participated in webinars offered by the California Chancellor's Office each day from October 17 through October 21. Local CCC activities included:

- A Zoom session with a student speaker: Tomas Garcia-Gallardo, CCC graduate and Dean's medal recipient, shared his experiences as a Dreamer student, his transfer journey, and his goals as a computer science major attending Fresno State.
- A table at the annual Rocktoberfest on October 20: Staff offered resources, financial aid, and DACA information for Dreamer students.
- Employee participation in Undocu-Ally Training which helped develop an understanding of undocumented students' experiences, active practices, and how to be an ally for this student population.

ROCKTOBERFEST WAS A BIG HIT ON CAMPUS ON OCTOBER 20

Students danced while the DJ played records that students brought for a fun dance party. Many booths were represented including an ability awareness fair, job fair, volunteer fair, food trucks, clubs, and college programs and services.

OUTREACH TEAM OUT AND ABOUT SHARING INFORMATION ABOUT CCC

The Outreach Team recently participated in various events including Feria de Education at Fresno State; Career Technical Education Night at the Grizzlies Stadium; the SCCC High School Counselors Conference on October 7, hosted at the Clovis campus; and the State Center Adult Consortium fair on October 18.

CCC ART INSTRUCTOR JAMIE NAKAGAWA BOLEY HIGHLIGHTS HER BEAUTIFUL ARTWORK

Artist and instructor, Jamie Nakagawa Boley shared her amazing artwork, "A Poetic Resistance: Come to the Water" at an exhibition opening on October 13. A reception was held with refreshments and an opportunity to meet the artist. Her work, a combination of oils and charcoal displayed with the occasional wild plant, featured personal memories, landscapes, and waterways.

TRANSFER DAY OFFERS STUDENTS THE OPPORTUNITY TO MEET WITH 4-YEAR UNIVERSITY REPRESENTATIVES

Transfer Day on October 7 was a huge success as students met with representatives from various 4-year universities.

HONORS 2A STUDENTS HOLD READING

"What Should not be Forgotten" was a reading held on September 28 by the Honors 2A Wednesday section. Students shared stories and narratives about community members they interviewed. Thank you to English

Instructor, Von Torres for organizing this wonderful event.

PRE-HEALTH STUDENTS VISIT UC DAVIS

On October 15, students traveled to UC Davis for the Pre-Health Conference. Students were excited to visit the campus to learn about the admission process, health professions, and attend interactive workshops, and network with other health majors.

CRUSH ATHLETICS UPDATE

The women's cross-country team was recently ranked #1 in the NorCal State rankings. The women's soccer team has won five consecutive games and just moved to a 1st place tie in the Central Valley Conference. Additional details at www.gocloviscrush.com.

View the CCC Calendar for upcoming events!