

Clovis Community College

Successful Inaugural Swim & Dive Meet:

The inaugural swim and dive meet was a great success! Thank you to all of the supporters that came out to cheer for the Clovis Community College athletes.

African-American heritage speaker Jimmy Collier rocks the house at CCC:

Mr. Collier shared words of wisdom and songs of inspiration on February 16, in honor of African American Heritage Month.

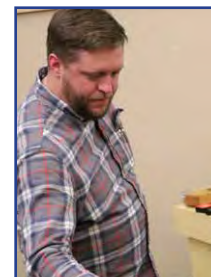

Monday, March 7, "Bittersweet Harvest: The Bracero Program 1942 – 1964." A Smithsonian photo/banner art exhibition on display through May 13, 2016.

ArtHop showcasing "IndiVisible: African-Native American Lives in the Americas," was a huge hit at CCC:

Art enthusiasts attended ArtHop on February 18. Edwin Macaraeg's "The Disambiguation of Asian-American History," was also on display. Attendees also enjoyed the special music performed by CCC music instructor Max Hembd.

Edwin Macaraeg

Max Hembd

CCC Counselors connect with students by visiting various classrooms during the first week of school:

Counselors visited over 65 classrooms at the main campus and Herndon campus in an effort to inform students about the Student Education Plan (SEP) and how to easily access the counseling department for any assistance.

CCC hosts the State Chancellor's Equal Employment Opportunity and Equity in Faculty Hiring Regional Training on February 10:

Over 75 educators attended this regional training at the Herndon Campus. The presenters were Kimberly Papillon, Esq.; Jacquelyn Reza, De Anza College; and Thuy Thi Nguyen, California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office.

CCC Financial Aid department hosts Cash for College FAFSA seminar on February 18:

It was a FULL house on February 18, as students attended a Cash for College workshop. Students received one-on-one help at computer stations on how to apply for financial aid for the Fall 2016 semester.

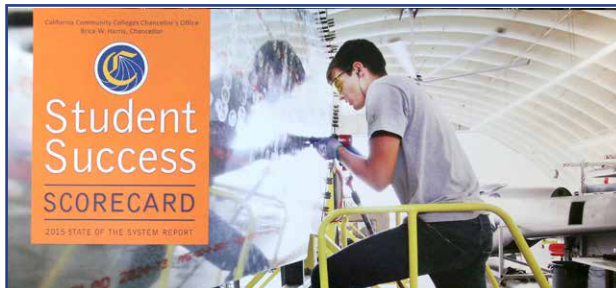

CCC Pre-Professional Health Club visits the Fresno County Morgue on February 19: Students had an opportunity to observe an autopsy from start to finish! The physician who conducted the autopsy walked the group through the entire procedure, answered questions, and quizzed the students. Everyone agreed that it was a worthwhile experience and the students are very grateful to the Fresno County Sheriff's Department for allowing the students access to their facility. Two other trips are planned for this semester.

Tour of Morgue

CCC hosts DIY Social Media for Business seminars in conjunction with the Clovis Chamber of Commerce and Moore than SEO: Four seminars will be offered on how business owners can develop and manage their social media platforms.

CCC announced in the 2015 State of the System Report prepared by the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office: Read the article highlighting the addition of Clovis Community College in the link below (page 17). <http://californiacommunitycolleges.cccco.edu/Portals/0/Reports/2015-State-of-the-System-Report-ADA-Web.pdf>

CCC ASG students get trained to staff voter registration tables on campus: CCC ASG students visited the Fresno County Elections department on February 18, and participated in an hour training session. CCC will host six voter registration drives this semester in conjunction with other CCC events.

Various Bond Informational Presentations:

City of Clovis council meeting 2/1/16
Fresno Citizens Corps 2/11/16
California Health Sciences University Board 2/20/16
Buchanan Sophomore/Junior Parent Night 2/11/16
State Center Adult Education Consortium 2/26/16

Upcoming Events at CCC:

Friday, March 4, CCC, Complete College America and the Central Valley Higher Education Consortium will host the Corequisite Remediation Seminar. Educators from across the state will gather at the Herndon Campus, to learn more about corequisite remediation and how these various programs can better prepare students for college. President Ikeda will provide an overview on the SCCC's early start on implementing corequisite remediation programs.

Monday, March 7, CCC ASG will be selling the special edition of the Fresno Bee for the annual Children's Hospital of Central California Kids Day.

Saturday, March 12, from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Reception at 5:00 p.m. and film at 6:00 p.m.,
"Changing Season: On the Masumoto Family Farm"

Thursday, March 17, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
14th Annual Oxford Debate,
"Teacher Tenure: Problem or Protection."
A public debate by the students of the Clovis Community College Honors cohort.

Tuesday, March 29, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
CCC Community Forum on the Bond,
California Health Sciences University
120 North Clovis Ave. Clovis, CA